

Clue: On Stage

Company List

Thank you to everyone who auditioned. This was a very difficult decision, with the talent I have seen in the last 2 days there were many ways I could have gone but one decision had to be made. If for some reason, you are unable to accept the role you have been offered you must talk to Ms. Bowen immediately. The first rehearsal is Wednesday from 3:00-5:00 in the Blue Room. Come prepared with a pencil, highlighter, and your chromebook(if you have one). Everyone listed on this sheet should plan to attend or communicate with Ms. Bowen about your absence. If you were not cast in the show please understand that there are still many opportunities to participate! Auditions for the musical Big Fish will be in November and the first forensics meeting will be in December.

I am (we all are) really lucky to be a part of a program that has so many talented students who are also committed, energetic, and supportive of each other. Now, let's put on an amazing show!
